

Mademoiselle Philippe Starck 2012

A small armchair combining the lightness of the polycarbonate frame with the comfort of the soft seat and the elegance of the upholstery of fabric or crocodile print.

The transparent or glossy black injection-moulded frame attaches to the broad and comfortable seat at four welding points which make for a solid but flexible coupling. With the linear and harmonious design, and the range of coverings including a damask fabric and three white and black fancy fabrics, customers can choose the look that best suits their personality, whether lively or romantic, classic or sophisticated.

Mademoiselle "à la mode" Philippe Starck 2005

Mademoiselle, the most fashionable design small armchair, is dressed by the most famous Made in Italy fashion labels with a special rapport with and affinity for Kartell.

The collection in fact includes a series of print fabrics signed by Missoni and Moschino. For Missoni, Rosita Missoni chose "Vevey", a kaleidoscope of flowers available in red or burnt tones, and "Cartagena" with elegant white and black flower graffiti. For Moschino, Rossella Jardini chose "Sketches", a patchwork print of original illustrations by Franco Moschino, "Margherite", a floral carpet on a black ground which flows from the seat up onto the back and "Cuori", the label's iconic black and white hearts print. Chic and cheerful, the Mademoiselle armchair has a transparent or black polycarbonate frame.
